2020 Outstanding Awardees: Brenda Hamlin; Kathy Gallagher; Association of Africans Living in Vermont

The KidSafe Collaborative Annual Awards honor outstanding individuals and groups in our community who have made a significant contribution to improving the safety and well-being of children in Chittenden County. 2021 marks our 32nd year of presenting these awards!

Please join us in recognizing these often unsung champions in our community, people who truly go “above and beyond” in their work to prevent and address child maltreatment. We invite you to make a difference for kids in our community by sponsoring the 2021 KidSafe Annual Awards.

A note about the past year...

The pandemic has been challenging for us all both on a personal and business level. KidSafe Collaborative's work is as important as ever and we are not slowing down. We do, however, understand that some industries have been hit hard. If you cannot contribute in the way you have in years past, we appreciate any level of support. There are many ways to support KidSafe and this celebration of the champions in our community, and we are grateful for them all!
